A traditional school with traditional values where we aspire, succeed and thrive

School Newsletter— 18th November 2019

Dear Parents/Carers

Last week we marked Remembrance Day by creating poppy displays and observing a minutes silence at 11am. Mrs Gascoyne kindly arranged for a cut out soldier to be made which forms the centre of our outside display.

Rehearsals for our Christmas Performances are in full swing. Please look out for a letter explaining how to obtain tickets which will be sent home shortly. As in previous years we will need to limit attendees to comply with fire regulations and keep everyone safe.

Our KS2 learners were treated to a classical musical concert on Friday which was thoroughly enjoyed by all. We hope it will inspire some of our learners to learn an instrument in the future.

Finally, as you are aware we did not participate in Children in Need this year. This year we plan to ask parents and carers to nominate a local charity for our fundraising and the School Council will then have the final choice on which charity to support for the year. We will initiate this in the Spring Term.

Miss Conner, Headteacher

NSPCC's PANTS

In our PSHE lessons this term, we will be discussing the NSPCC's PANTS rules. These are designed to teach pupils how to stay safe from sexual abuse, without giving explicit information or telling scary stories or even using the term "sexual abuse". In the lesson, children will learn about the 'PANTS' acrostic, which stands for:

- Privates are private
- Always remember your body belongs to you
- No means no
- Talk about secrets that upset you
- Speak up, someone can help

The lessons will be fully-age appropriate. More information about talking PANTS, including a short film and a parent guide can
