A traditional school with traditional values where we aspire, succeed and thrive

25th February 2022

Dear Parent/Carers

It has been lovely to welcome some of you back in school this week and we look forward to meeting with more of you next week. Don't forget to book a slot on Thursday with your child's class teacher if you haven't already done so. There are a few slots left but they are going fast!

I wrote in my last newsletter about some of the curriculum immersion days that are taking place over the rest of the academic year. We have a visiting company who will lead these sessions and help bring the curriculum to life. This starts on Wednesday with the Y5&6 becoming Ancient Greeks for the day.

Then on Thursday next week we are celebrating World Book Day as part of our Book Week Celebrations. As you know we love reading at Terrington so this is right up our street! During the day we are reading all about the "Queen's Hat" and will all be making and designing our own hats to wear for a special Hat Parade which will take place at 3pm. All parents/carers are invited to attend this. You will need to arrive by 3pm and stand around the periphery of the playground (i.e. the outside edges) so that we can parade from the EYFS area through the playground and car park and back in school. We will then return to classes and join you again once we have all of our bits ready for hometime. Feel free to wear your best hat too should you want to join in.

Dress to express

Thank you so much for all your contributions for this day. We raised an amazing £255.77 for Place2Be charity.

Dressing Up in School

You will know from my introduction that we are holding a hat parade on World Book Day this year rather than dressing up. We know how much some of our learners love dressing up but equally also appreciate the pressures on finances at the moment. There will be opportunities to dress up for some of the curriculum immersion days for those that wish to but we will also allow learners to wear their own non-uniform clothes instead on these days if they would prefer. Hopefully, this will mean that there isn't too much pressure on family finances and also cater for some of our learners who are a little less positive about dressing up - something for all.

At our recent FOSA meeting, a suggestion was made that we should invite parents/carers to donate any previously loved dressing up costumes that are now too small. This will allow FOSA to sell these on for a small donation and make any future dressing up events a little more affordable. If you do have any to donate, please drop them into the school office.

Class Photographs

Don't forget to look your best on Tuesday next week. Class photographs will be taking place in the hall.

TAXI ENTRANCE

This is a polite reminder to parents/carers NOT walk in the taxi entrance but to use the pedestrian gates in the morning and afternoon.

We had a near miss the other day and we would hate to see anyone get hurt.

The roped barrier are there to keep vehicles and pedestrians separated and keep everyone safe. Thank to the vast majority of you who keep to the correct side.

½ Term Happiness Project

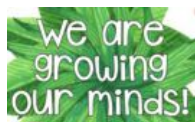

Well done to everyone who completed the half termly challenge. We have loved receiving our learners' ideas about what makes them happy. It was lovely to read about families, friends and hobbies, not to mention the odd chocolate cake! There is still time to send these in if you haven't already. They will be displayed around the school.

In assemblies this week, we learned about "Marvellous Mistakes," and how instead of feeling bad about mistakes they can help us learn.
