

Spring has sprung!

We have enjoyed getting out and about spotting the signs of Spring!

We worked together to hunt for them, and enjoyed talking about what we spotted.

We have begun exploring the life cycle of a frog with the arrival of frog spawn in our school garden. We have started to observe the changes that have happened already and can't wait to see how far they are along the cycle when we return after the Easter break.

